2017-18 STRATEGIES EVENT SERIES | SESSION 2

English Learners: The Myths & Realities

Presented by Karen Jorgensen, Department of Curriculum & Teaching

This session provides an experiential approach through the myths and realities as they relate to English learners. The time includes research and practice through language immersion, the stages of second/additional language learning, legal considerations, and a time to exchange resources that support English learners in the PK-16 setting.

9:00 – 11:00 a.m.
